DASA Agentic AI Enterprise Strategist Bootcamp

Durée: 2 Jours Réf de cours: DASA-AAIESB Méthodes d'apprentissage: Classe à distance

Résumé:

Master Agentic Enterprise Strategy to Lead AI-Driven Organizational Transformation
DASA equips enterprises to thrive in the Age of Agency, where humans and AI collaborate as one team. We support transformation across every level of the enterprise, from how teams operate to how leaders steer and platforms scale.Our approach is grounded in the Agentic Enterprise Atlas, a capability model that guides transformation across leadership, teaming, infrastructure, learning, and flow. We make team performance visible and improvable with our research-backed Team Performance Model, and we help scale change through Aidrian, our organizational performance platform that delivers personalized guidance and real-time support to teams, leaders, and transformation offices. To activate these models, DASA offers practical certification programs, targeted bootcamps, and continuous learning pathways designed to build agentic capabilities that compound over time. With 300+ member and partner organizations in our ecosystem, DASA helps define, inform, and advance the future of high-performance digital work through networking, knowledge sharing, awards, and global collaboration.
