

APMP Project Management Qualification (PMQ)

Duration: 5 Days Course Code: APMP Delivery Method: Company Event

Overview:

The APM Project Management Qualification (PMQ) is an internationally-recognised knowledge-based qualification that enables you to satisfy the needs of modern-day projects, by fully participating in undertakings ranging from individual assignments to large capital projects. It is the benchmark qualification for anyone embarking on a project management career, or looking to add project management to their portfolio of skills.

This is an intensive five-day course that prepares you for the PMQ examination. The training is conducted via a virtual training environment. You need to ensure that you can satisfy the technical requirements prior to taking the course.

This course is aligned to the new APM Body of Knowledge 7th Edition.
